LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3.—Acting under a stimulus of rewards which now aggregate $100,000, hundreds of amateur and professional detectives are attempting to discover the perpetrators of the explosion which wrecked the Los Angeles Times building on the morning of October 1.

Seven bodies have been taken from the ruins, all so charred and disfigured that identity is impossible. They will rest in a common grave, and General Otis, the owner of the Times, will erect a monument in honor of them, a token of their martyrdom in his service.

Experts at Work.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—W. J. Burns and Earl Rogers arrived here late today, taking up the threads of the search for the Los Angeles dynamite which they unraveled in the southern city and which led here.

Rogers is considered one of the most brilliant criminal lawyers of the State, although a young man, and was assistant counsel for the defense in the San Francisco graft trials.

W. J. Burns was Francis Heney's assistant for the prosecution in the same cases, and was bitterly attacked by the Times then. They are in the private employ of Otis, but are working in cooperation with the authorities of both cities, who are leaving no stone unturned in their search for the assassins.

REWARD NOW UP TO $100,000 will have the strongest teams in the inter-grade soccer series at the school. The boys look forward to an interesting series. A new ball has been bought by the league and will be used for the first time on Wednesday afternoon, when the fifth and seventh grades meet on the campus.

Mr. Stanley Livingston, president of the inter-scholastic league, will call a meeting in a few days of all the representatives of the three schools to go through some important matters. The Kams are likely to stick to the rules as they now stand.

In the sidetracking of the football game it is hoped to obtain much more benefit by having inter-grade soccer and baseball games. The position thus obtained will assist to develop material useful for the advanced teams.

The Kamehameha Cadets are making good progress in their drilling under the instruction of Captain Winters and the cadet officers. The cadets will start in with the manual of arms some time next week.

The lack of proper material in size, weight and knowledge of the game compels the school to sidestep from football this season.

There are now 235 students enrolled at the Kamehameha Schools, the largest enrollment the schools have had in any one year.
